DENIES THE IMPEACHMENT

Mr. Shiozawa Does Not Accept the Role of Agitator.In His Opinion the Planters Are Responsible for Trouble—Colonial Salts Goes to Kaula on Pacific Division.

Mr. Shiozawa, proprietor of the Honolulu Shimpo, left in the Hongkong Maru for Japan, before leaving he said to a Bulletin reporter:

"I wish to reply to criticisms on my interview in the Advertiser. What I stated there was that the laborers bore no illwill against the planters or the immigration companies. These parties contend that while the American law made the laborers free, they were still held by the Japanese law to their contracts.

"There is no general cry for higher wages for the planters generally offered them more pay. I have met delegations at Hilo, Kaula, Wainane and Oahu plantations, and found they simply want it definitely settled whether they are bound in any way by their contracts. They want their bank deposits, and don't want to make any more under compulsion.

"The reason I spoke to the Advertiser reporter was because I believed there would be trouble if the planters went to settle the affair their own way, whereas if they kept aloof the laborers and immigration companies would arrange matters satisfactorily between themselves.

"The immigration companies admit they have no more control over the laborers, but say the stake a kindly interest in their welfare. Yet when sick people came here before, the companies turned them back home without any kindly feeling.

"I have no interest in preventing the laborers from working. As I own two stores I would be a sufferer from a strike. The consul himself has given the opinion that the contracts of laborers arriving here since August 12, 1898, have no binding force whatever.

"I am going away in the Hongkong Maru for six months, or I should give you a written statement."

Consul Miki Salto is going to Kaula to explain to the Japanese laborers on that island the true situation in which they are placed under the new laws. His advice will be to the effect that they wait until instructions are received from the home government, and in the meantime continue at their work as peaceable citizens.

SWINBURNE'S WAR POEM.

London, June 8.—The Saturday Review prints a twelve stanza poem by Igeron C. Swinburne, entitled "Astrae Victrix." Here are two of the stanzas:

And now the quickening tide
That brings back power and pride
To faith and love—
Whose ensign is thy name—
Bears down the recreant lie
That doomed thy name to die.
Sons of friends and foes
Behold thy star the same
As when it stood in heaven a sun
And Europe saw no glory left
In her sky, save one.We loosen not on these knaves
Our scourge-tormented slaves.
We held the hand, that fate
Had risen to smite
The torturer, fast.WILLIAM GETS HIS NAVY.

Berlin, June 13.—The Bundesrath today approved the navy bill and the measures providing means to carry out the projected plans of the measure as already passed by the Reichstag. Emperor William, who is said to be delighted at the result, will tomorrow sign the bill, and the Reichsanzeiger will immediately thereafter publish it, thus making it law.

It is said that the Kaiser, when the news that the bill had passed was wired him, exclaimed: "Now we know where we stand. At last there is solid bottom under one's feet."

The Government press prints articles eulogizing the patriotism of the Reichstag and rejoicing over the large majority for the bill.

They Want the Canal.

Washington, June 11.—Ex-President Salvador of Salvador, who recently came here as Minister of that country, in the course of an interview today spoke of the policy of Salvador toward the isthmian canal.

"Our interests in the oceanic canal are much the same as those of the United States," said he. "We want the canal because it would be of vast benefit to all Central America, giving work to thousands and ending internal troubles by keeping everybody busy. But we want it mainly because Salvador has no ports on the Atlantic.

Candidate From Nebraska.

Omaha, Neb., June 14.—Nebraska proposer to be heard in the matter of the selection of a candidate for Vice President at the Philadelphia convention. Hon. William F. Guerry, chairman of the Nebraska delegation in a signed article in the Omaha Bee, urges the nomination of Hon. John N. Baldwin of Council Bluffs, a lawyer of wide repute, who has a large practice in the Nebraska courts.

A TELLING POSTSCRIPT.

Miss Jones was ill and in great haste to go out of town. She wrote to the proprietor of a mountain farmhouse that had been recommended to her to engage board. This is the reply: "Miss Jones—My terms are $5 a week each, where two occupy a room; $6 when occupied by one. House is very near the river, and a large brook runs through the place. Table of the best, with milk and cream in abundance. Plenty of shade about the grounds. Horses and wagons at disposal of guests." But it was the postscript that went to the heart of the matter (and of Miss Jones.) It read: "I could not accommodate you this year, as my house was burned to the ground last May."
